Approval of Minutes

- Minutes from June 28 approved

Old Business

- Review and discussion of Cultural District Criteria
 - Reviewed descriptions from California, Indiana, Louisiana, Massachusetts, South Carolina, Oklahoma and Washington.
 - Discussion about "description" of a district and also "goals/objectives" of a district to provide a common frame of reference going
 - Common themes include establishing a unique identity, having a well-defined, marketable area, encouraging tourism, and supporting creativity through consistent programming.
 - Criteria should likely include elements of a walkable geographic area that has a concentration of facilities, activities and assets, which serve as a center of cultural, artistic and economic activity for the community.
- Kellie Williams will pull together the examples from other cities that commissioners agreed were good for further discussion for next meeting.

Meeting adjourned 8:34 a.m.
